Affairs in North and South Carolina NEWSERN, June 6 -Intelligence from all parts of the State indicate the speedy return of the people to their loyalty to the United States. The citizens of the different counties are establishing a home police system, for the purpose of maintaining order and suppressing depredations.

The prospects are that the movements to restore civil law, through the inauguration of a new State Government, will call out the largest vote ever cast in the State, so auxious are the people to return to peaceful pursuits. President Johnson's proclamation of amnesty
